RECITALS

WHEREAS, Party 1 and Party 2 (collectively, the "Parties") intend to marry each other, and both Parties acknowledge and agree that they each have children from previous relationships;

WHEREAS, the Parties wish to establish the terms and conditions under which their assets, obligations, and responsibilities will be managed during the marriage, as well as their respective responsibilities regarding their children, property, spousal support, and other matters;

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual promises, covenants, and representations contained herein, the Parties agree as follows:

1. CHILDREN FROM PRIOR RELATIONSHIPS

1.1 Support of Children from Prior Relationships: The Parties acknowledge that each has children from previous relationships. Both Parties agree that they will continue to financially support their respective children from previous relationships and will be responsible for their children's needs, education, and upbringing in accordance with applicable laws and obligations.

2. WAIVER OF SPOUSAL SUPPORT

2.1 Waiver of Spousal Support: Both Parties agree to waive any and all claims to spousal support (alimony) in the event of divorce, legal separation, or dissolution of marriage. This waiver includes both temporary and permanent spousal support, unless a court of competent jurisdiction finds that enforcement of this waiver would result in extreme hardship for one Party, in which case the court may award spousal support in its discretion.

3. DISTRIBUTION OF PROPERTY ACQUIRED DURING MARRIAGE

3.1 Property Acquired During the Marriage: Any property acquired by either Party during the marriage, whether real or personal, shall be distributed based on each Party's financial contribution or share towards the property. This includes, but is not limited to, income, savings, real estate, investments, and personal property.

3.2 Determining Ownership Share: The Parties will maintain accurate records of all financial contributions made toward the acquisition of any property during the marriage. In the event of divorce, the share of each Party in any such property shall be determined based on the Parties' respective financial contributions to its acquisition, improvement, or maintenance.

3.3 Agreement on Title and Ownership: Both Parties agree to list property titles in a manner that reflects each Party's share of the property as described above. In the absence of explicit agreement on the share, the Parties shall seek mediation to resolve any disputes regarding ownership and distribution.

4. CHILDREN IN THE MARRIAGE

4.1 Decision Regarding Children: Both Parties agree that they do not wish to have children together at the outset of their marriage. Should either Party desire children in the future, both Parties must mutually agree to the decision to have children. In the event that one Party desires children but the other does not, the Party wishing to have children will be responsible for their care, financial support, and upbringing, unless the Parties mutually agree otherwise.

4.2 No Obligation for the Other Party's Children: In the event that one Party desires children and the other does not, the Party who does not wish to have children shall have no responsibility or obligation for the child or children, including financial support, care, or other parental duties.

5. FOREIGN CITIZEN SUPPORT

5.1 Support for Stay in Country: Party 2 acknowledges that they are a foreign citizen. In the event of marriage, Party 1 agrees to provide support and assistance necessary to ensure that Party 2 is able to legally remain in the country for the duration of the marriage and until Party 2 has successfully established permanent residency or citizenship in the country. This includes, but is not limited to, assisting Party 2 with obtaining and maintaining the necessary visas, work permits, or residency status required by the relevant immigration authorities.

5.2 Termination of Support: Party 1's obligation to support Party 2's residency status shall terminate immediately if Party 2 faces criminal charges that lead to their deportation, or if Party 2 is convicted of any criminal activity resulting in their removal or inability to remain in the country. Support will also terminate once Party 2 has successfully established permanent residency or citizenship in the country.

6. TAX FILING AND DEPENDENCY CLAIMS

6.1 Claiming Existing Dependents: Each Party agrees that they shall retain the right to claim their respective existing dependents, including children from previous relationships, for tax purposes in accordance with IRS rules and regulations. This right shall apply regardless of whether the Parties file taxes jointly or individually.

6.2 Filing Taxes Jointly or Individually: In the event the Parties file their taxes jointly, both Parties shall mutually agree on how to allocate claims for dependents, credits, and deductions on the tax return. If the Parties file separately, each Party shall continue to claim their own dependents for tax purposes, subject to applicable law.

6.3 Agreement on Dependency in Future: If the Parties later decide to have children together, they agree to determine, in writing, which Party will claim the new child(ren) as a dependent on future tax filings, in accordance with applicable tax laws. If both Parties wish to claim the child(ren) as a dependent, they agree to resolve the issue amicably, or, if necessary, through mediation.

7. MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

7.1 Full Disclosure: Both Parties agree to provide full and accurate disclosure of their financial assets, liabilities, and income to each other. Each Party has had the opportunity to consult with independent legal counsel regarding the terms of this Agreement.

7.2 Governing Law: This Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the state of Nevada, without regard to its conflict of laws provisions.

7.3 Amendments: This Agreement may be amended or modified only by a written instrument signed by both Parties.

7.4 Enforceability: If any provision of this Agreement is found to be invalid, unenforceable, or void by a court of competent jurisdiction, the remaining provisions shall remain in full force and effect.

7.5 Entire Agreement: This Agreement constitutes the entire understanding between the Parties and supersedes any prior agreements or understandings, whether written or oral, regarding the subject matter of this Agreement.
